

The traffic and weather updates on satellite are very important to me. As a subscription service why would the FCC take away a useful product I've already paid for. No where else can I find the level of information that is available on satellite. Please reject the NAB's petition 04-160.